Mary Day will attend and I need two more delegates. Contact me please, only the first two callers will attend!

Committee members don't forget our meeting on the 02nd of March. I have not received the paper work back from the State regarding the motions and nominations for the PAWA, but we have to run through them.

Agenda for Committee Meeting

- Business Arising from Previous Minutes

- General Business- Nominations and motions for state AGM
  - Pinto society presentation to use our grounds as a Base
  - Delegates to attend the State AGM.

I wish to be one and would like Trish as another due to the questions that might be asked. This I am sure does not stop others from attending, but we carry the votes for the club.

Meeting Close.

Enjoy Healthy Eating Have a Go Day

I will need rackets please and Please Contact me if you can help on the day or clean up before the event. I attended some of the State Pony Club coaching weekend and it is vital we treat this as a pony club event. I have two pony club gear checkers, who will also supervise our coaches. They also wish to learn about polocrosse. It has come to my attention that coaching will be changing with children. So we must get this right, as our State coach is interested in the outcome as much as I am. There is another attachment from sports and recreation, if you are interested please let me know.

Women on Boards

Heavy going at times, but packed full of fantastic speakers. Sports and Recreation sponsored me to go to the Foundation for Australian Agricultural Women Corporate Governance Forum. This was an interactive session covering corporate governance, financial issues and requirement for board members. Some of the speakers were Stephen Howell, executive director assurance services division, Better known as WA Auditor General.

Jaqueline Raison, partner Blake Dawson Waldron. She spoke on corporate law and governance. There was more and it should all be up on the web at www.womenonboards.org.au

In the evening at Government House Ballroom was a networking evening with mentor directors. To name a few:

- Gene Tilbrook, director Wesfarmers
- Leigh Warnick, senior partner Blake Dawson Waldron
- Kerry Sanderson, CEO Fremantle Ports Authority

You may ask what this has to do with polocrosse and how come I went and the answer is:

- We have a bid to in to host the nationals and good governance is vital to any club.
- I rang up to enquire about it and sports and recreation must have thought I was a good candidate so they let me attend at their pleasure. We must be pro active and a little forward at getting known. Perth Polocrosse Club even got a mention by one of the speakers, so I was a good ambassador for polocrosse.

Hope I have covered everything for now.

COMPETENCY BASED TRAINING – WHAT’S THE IMPACT ON SPORT ?

What are the latest and greatest delivery methods for coaching and officiating education?

Have you been told you MUST attend a seminar to re-accredit your coaching or officiating accreditation! .....is that really correct?

Is attending a course the ONLY way to become an accredited coach or official?

The vast majority of sports have moved the educating of their coaches and officials to competency based methods.

What does that mean and what is the impact on State Sporting Associations, Coaches and Officials here in Western Australia?

Have you heard of competency based training and not sure what it means?

..... then this seminar is for you.

If your organisation is TOTALLY committed to providing access to your courses...

..... then this seminar is for you.

Competency based training is a flexible and powerful way to educate coaches and officials. Unfortunately, the understanding of what it means and how it can be implemented is incredibility poor in the sport industry.

The Department of Sport and Recreation has asked Mike McLaughlin to present 2 sessions to address competency based training and how it impacts on State Sporting Associations.

Mike is an internationally renowned expert in the area of sport education and training. He consults closely with National / State sporting bodies, Australian Sport Commission and State Departments of Sport and Recreation. He has developed training packages for sports and is one of the most sought after presenters in Australia.

We would like to offer those involved in the development or delivery of coach and officials education in Western Australia the opportunity to attend one of the following seminars.
